Remembrance Day 2018. Exactly one hundred years ago on November 11th 1918, the guns of the Western Front fell silent after four years of continuous warfare in Europe. With their armies retreating and close to collapse, German leaders signed an Armistice, ending the First World War. From the summer of 1918, five divisions of the Australian Corps had been at the forefront of an allied advance to victory. Following stunning success at the battle of Hamel in July, the Aussies played a part in turning the tide of the war at Amiens, then the capture of Mont St Quentin and Pèronne and the breaching of German defences on the Hindenburg Line. By early October, the Australians had achieved a fighting reputation out of proportion to their numbers, but victory came at a heavy cost. There were almost 48,000 casualties during 1918, including more than 12,000 dead. In those four years of war, of around 330,000 Australians who served overseas, more than 60,000 died. The social effects of such losses, cast a long shadow over the post war years. © Text from Australian War Memorial

During November (the month of the Holy Souls), it is appropriate to acknowledge the enormous sacrifice made by so many, in the name of world peace. 'May they rest in peace.'

My thanks to the people of St Kevin's for so warmly welcoming Deacon Coloma last Sunday. As a precaution, Fr Gordon has been advised to take several weeks further recuperation, but expects to be back with us soon. Fr Des Harrigan will celebrate at Adamstown this weekend. Last Saturday evening's All Saints Parish Picnic was a worthwhile gathering of people from our Kotara, Adamstown and Cardiff communities. There was room for more families in our spacious grounds but nevertheless, those who participated had a pleasant time. Thanks to our Team Members who planned the night for us and to all who helped in any way.

Fr Terry

ADAMSTOWN NOTICES

It was very pleasing to see an attentive class of St Columba's Year 5 students joining our little group at Tuesday's 9.30am Mass at Adamstown. Luke's gospel of the day dealt with the man who gave a great banquet and invited a lot of people. Unlike in the parable, these children did accept the Lord's invitation. Fr Terry

32nd Sunday Ordinary Time - Year B

FIRST READING 1 Kgs 17:10-16

A reading from the first book of the Kings

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives', she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent,
jug of oil shall not be emptied,
before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 145:7-10. R.v.2

Praise the Lord, my soul!

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith forever
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord who sets prisoners free. (R.)
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down.
It is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord who protects the stranger. (R.)
3. The Lord upholds the widow and orphan
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. (R.)

Praise the Lord, my soul!

SECOND READING Heb 9:24-28

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!
Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mk 12:38-44

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'
